A jazz singer graduated with honours from the Como Conservatory, she has been performing live for over ten years. She works with a carefully selected group of musicians to offer fully customised projects for private and corporate events, weddings and cocktail parties – with ensembles ranging from intimate duos to larger formations, always tailored to the client's needs.

Her repertoire moves from classic jazz to contemporary sounds, drawing on swing, Latin and bossa nova traditions, with consistent attention to performance quality, atmosphere and the specific character of each occasion.
